

Colin Carruthers

NAME OF PERSON	Colin Carruthers
YEAR OF BIRTH	1969
NATIONALITY	British
PROFESSION	Health, Safety & Environmental Management Consultant
POSITION IN PRESENT EMPLOYMENT	Health and Safety Consultant
QUALIFICATIONS & TRAINING	Diploma in Safety Management (British Safety Council) BSI Internal Auditor Management of lifting operations (appointed person BS7121) Client/Contractor National Safety Group (CCNSG) approved trainer PASMA certified for mobile access towers Currently doing Masters Degree; Health, Safety & Environmental Management Year 2
MEMBERSHIPS	International Institute of Risk and Safety Management (IIRSM). ROSPA. Merseyside & Cheshire Construction Safety Group (MCCSG)

Mr Colin Carruthers is an experienced safety professional / consultant who focuses on helping and achieving strict safety standards. Mr Colin Carruthers have extensive management, supervision and Health, Safety & Environmental experience gained during 20 years working within the Construction and Civil's sectors including major Petro-Chemical sites, delivering the highest standards of safety through the implementation of safety management systems and workforce contribution. Advanced organisational and communication skills that produce results with team activity.

Mr Carruthers is an experienced safety professional / consultant who has absorbed and integrated a hands-on Health, Safety and Environment management approach to my development. In the last 7 years I've extended my experience in site management and supervision through my involvement with a number of projects, most notably civils / construction projects within the power industry for clients such as Scottish Power and National Grid.

Key Skills

- Extensive experience in developing and implementing Safety Management Systems within Construction and Civils Sectors
- Safety Coach – Behavioural Safety
- Good understanding / experience of Construction, Design & Management Regulations.
- Trained, experienced and Qualified Safety Professional.
- Experienced and motivated health and safety professional with proven ability in management, supervisory and project position. Sound working knowledge of current health and safety law and safety management systems.

- ❑ Sound knowledge, expertise and experience of implementing and maintaining ISO 9001:2000 and OHSAS 18001 systems.
- ❑ Commitment to achieving the highest standards.
- ❑ Sound understanding of both quality and environmental management systems
- ❑ Good technical understanding with thorough appreciation of contractor services
- ❑ Extensive Construction and Civils experience including Petro-Chemical Sites and Permit to Work Audit and Control.
- ❑ Well-developed training with strong inter-personal and written skills and an ability to communicate at all levels.

EXPERIENCE IN PRESENT EMPLOYMENT

2004 to Present Seguro Management Ltd

Currently working as a Health and safety consultant providing a range of services which include assistance in carrying out risk & method statements, development & review of health and safety policies, advisory service, company safety audits, site inspections plus focusing on supporting businesses in meeting health & safety regulations and other commercial obligations. During the period of 2004 Mr Carruthers spent 12 months working offshore, contracted through Setter and Associates, on a ChevronTexaco gas/oil platform off Aberdeen working as their safety supervisor plus looking at the behavioural safety. During this period he also became an authorised trainer and delivered the Client/Contractor National Safety Group (CCNSG) safety passport.

1997 to 2004 QUFAB CONSTRUCTION LTD

Key Responsibilities:

Developing, implementing, monitoring and controlling all company activities to ensure compliance with legislation and company policy with respect to health, safety, environmental and quality issues.

Carrying out routine audits to ensure day-to-day compliance and reporting major non-conformities to directors, senior management and the like.

Coordinating external audits.

Reporting on audit performance.

Carrying out employee workshops on key issues.

Providing advice to all levels within the organisation.

HS&E Manager:

Responsible for the development of company safety procedures working towards achieving OHSAS 18001: with overall responsibility for the management of health, safety and environmental issues on all contracts carried out by the company, including coordinating Principal Contractor duties under the CDM regulations. Mainly working within the power industry for blue chip companies such as Alstom, Scottish Power, VATEch, Siemens and National Grid. This role involves overseeing all health and safety practices, risk assessments, method statements, accident/incident investigation, site audits and training for both internal employees and external subcontractors. Also experienced at a senior level and accustomed to working at boardroom level.

Quality Manager:

Responsible for the development of company quality procedures in accordance with ISO 9001:2000, to establish and maintain the quality policy and quality objectives of the organization; to promote the quality policy and objectives through the organization, to ensure that an effective and efficient quality management system is established, implemented and maintained in order to sustain current certification. Carrying out internal periodic audits within the company ensuring compliance with company quality procedures.

1991-1997

Site Manager/Foreman: for Qufab Construction Ltd

General site foreman progressing to site manager then contracts manager duties working within live high voltage open terminal substations and general new build.